150 BPM 4/4

Verse 1:

C Am
Somehow I always have been waiting for this call,
C Am
somehow I got that you're not knowing me at all.
C G D F
Although I kinda felt it, I haven't been prepared
C G E D C
for words like icy showers full of long-time quelled emotions that I heard.
Am
What a hurt.

Verse 2:

You know exactly how to make me furious.
You know perfectly how to force me to excuse.
So much loaded questions and distortion of replies,
led us into silence even though I instantly apologized.

Chorus:

C G Am E
Brother, why do you believe, that you never can forgive?
C G Am E
Brother, listen to this song, nevermore you'll get me wrong.
C G Am E
Are you sure that you will beat me when you treat me like a dork?
C G Am D (C)
Is it right to spit your laughter when I state who is my lord?

Verse 3:

Sorry, I'm not the kind of brother that you miss.
I wish one day you will get rid of prejudice.
I'm neither caught by preachers nor a victim of a sect, but just a true believer who is seeking for a little bit respect.

Chorus

Bridge:

Am E F C
You might be on the way to win your fight against belief,
(C) F E Am
alright, but that is something no one ever will achieve.
(Chords looped)
I'm forced to run the risk that you will argue when I sing,
that Jesus is the real grassroots democratic king.
For him we are all equal, regardless of our past,
Just knowing him – nothing else we must !

Chorus
